ELECTRICAL AND COMPUTER ENGINEERING, UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

The Engineering Entrepreneurship Series Presents:

Speaker: Bobby John

Title: Innovation Workshop

Innovation is what sets individuals, companies and countries apart. Come and hear why startups are the best place to cultivate innovation and why you should strive to work in one when you graduate. Mr. John will describe some of his experiences in founding Caught in the Web and several other companies.

Bobby John is the founder of Caught in the Web, Inc., the internet development firm that grew to 120 employees, raised $9 million in venture capital and was acquired by CGI a publicly traded company on the Toronto Stock Exchange. Bobby currently runs an early stage venture capital firm and startup incubator. He is also a Skule graduate.
