English Conversation Program
(ECP)

Tell me about ECP?
This is not a formal, academic English program!
The ECP will provide you with the opportunity to:
- practice conversational English in an informal setting
- better understand Canadian culture
- become more at ease using English
- assure you are being understood when using English
- understand commonly accepted etiquette
- share your cross-cultural experiences

Who is the ECP designed for?
This program is for all international students who speak English as a second or other language. The course is also open to spouses, Post Doctoral Fellows and Visiting Scholars.

Who teaches the ECP?
Facilitators are volunteers who have experience in one or more of the following areas:
1) teaching experience
2) cross cultural experience
3) international experience

When is the ECP?
The ECP courses run three times a year, in fall, winter and spring, for 10 weeks. Classes meet once a week for two hours.

How do I register?
First, you must register with the International Student Centre, at 33 St. George Street. This automatically puts you on our listserv, which enables us to email you important information, such as registration dates for ECP. ECP Registration must be made in person in room #202 at the ISC and is run on a "first come first served" basis. There is a $10 fee for students. Spouses must pay a $50 course fee and Post Doctoral Fellows and Visiting Scholars must purchase a $30 ISC membership in addition to the course fee.
